We want to thank everyone for your understanding and trust in these trying times combating the COVID-19 crisis. We all have an important role in the fight against the coronavirus. The health and safety of our residents and staff is our highest priority. We are happy to report that none of our residents or staff have had a positive report of the COVID-19 virus. We appreciate all the positive comments regarding the safety measures that we have implemented. All the health and safety protocols that we have in place are recommended by the Center for Disease Control and state and local officials.

As our state begins to re-open, we will be implementing a plan to phase out the existing protocols that we have in place. We will keep you updated as changes evolve. Just a reminder that you can arrange a video chat with your loved one. Give our office a call to arrange a time.

We remain committed to the safety and well-being of our residents and staff. Should you have any questions, please give us a call.

Thank you!

Famous People Funny Father's Day Quotes

Remember: What Dad wants for Father's Day is a nap. Really. ~ Dave Barry

I've been to war. I've raised twins. If I had a choice, I'd rather go to war. ~ George W. Bush

You can tell what was the best year of your father's life, because he seems to freeze that clothing style and ride it out. ~ Jerry Seinfeld

When you're young, you think your dad is Superman. Then you grow up, and you realize he's just a regular guy who wears a cape. ~ Dave Attell

Dad taught me everything I know. Unfortunately, he didn't teach me everything he knows. ~ Al Unser

There should be a children's song, if you're happy and you know it, keep it to yourself and let your dad sleep. ~ Jim Gaffigan

If you ever want to torture my dad, tie him up and right in front of him, refold a map incorrectly. ~ Cathy Ladman

Elvis Shocks the Nation

By 1956, Elvis Presley had already hit No. 1 on the music charts with "Heartbreak Hotel," and he was becoming a rock 'n' roll sensation, but nothing prepared the public for his live performance of "Hound Dog" on The Milton Berle Show on June 5, 1956. Elvis had already appeared on television several times, including on The Milton Berle Show. But in these appearances, Elvis was always filmed close-up or behind his guitar. On June 5, the 21-year-old Elvis was televised head to toe, swinging his hips in wild gyrations as he danced, earning the moniker "Elvis the Pelvis." The next day, critics across the country roundly criticized Elvis, calling him vulgar and untalented.

Ed Sullivan declared Elvis would never appear on his show. None of this criticism stopped Elvis from becoming rock 'n' roll's first superstar. In the end, Elvis' critics had to eat their words.

Playing the Piano again!

When Betty was younger she took piano lessons for eight years. Playing always brings her joy but it had been a long time since she sat down to "tickle the ivories". She's still got it!

In astrology, those born between June 1 and 20 are the Twins of Gemini. A Gemini's dual nature is expressed through skillful communication and dynamic sociability. The Twins are energetic, quick-witted, optimistic, and emotionally intelligent. Those born between June 21 and 30 are Cancer's Crabs. Crabs care deeply about their family and home. After all, they carry one on their backs! Guided by their hearts, Crabs are sympathetic and loyal friends and imaginative collaborators.
